

BSF Induction Day

Summer Holiday Task

A Level English Literature & Language

For your Anthology Study you will be analysing a range of written and spoken non-fiction texts.

We are going to ask you to produce a mini-anthology of non-fiction material.

Some of the text types explored on the course are:

- Diaries
- Essays
- Speeches (written versions of)
- Letters
- Guides (for example a guide to running a perfect home)
- Adverts for charity
- Social media texts

See if you can find an example of each text type and to really challenge yourself see if you can go back in time (the earliest text in your anthology is Samuel Pepys diary about the Great Fire of London which was written in 1666).

We look forward to welcoming you in September and seeing what you discovered about the world of non-fiction writing.

Please bring your folder with your texts to your first lesson.

Thank you,

The English department at Braintree Sixth Form

If you have any queries please contact Mrs Dunton on catherine.dunton@braintreesixthform.com